Discussion
Conclusions	Youth Coalition: Shayla reported that they elected club officers. They have a meeting today after school and they are hosting concessions for Housel’s family movie night. Tracy reported that the youth coalition has been hosting the Monday Mayhem nights and those are going well, we just need to get more kids involved. Positive Prevention Services: Kayla reported that the trainings that students have gone through have seemed to help. Kids have been bringing their friends to the counselors and less referrals have been given to Kayla. She was pleased to see that the intervention prevention services are working.
Media Campaigns
Presenter:
Discussion
Conclusions	Let’s Draw the Line: Zebbie reported that they are targeting bullying, suicide, self-harm, alcohol, drugs, and vaping. They will be working to create posters and put them in the schools and local businesses. Planning to launch mid-March. Talk They Hear You: Jen reported on the adult campaign. They had a meeting on 2/17/16 and there was great ideas and turn out. They will be doing a radio broadcast to advertise the campaign. Alcohol, marijuana, prescription drugs, and bullying are their topics. They do have Spanish speaking participants to broadcast on Spanish radio stations. Still looking for adults to be on the radio. They have posters being put together. Planning to launch April.

Recruitment Needs
Presenter:
Discussion
Conclusions	Sector Representation: We could use more businesses, mental health, and media. If anyone knows anybody personally please invite them. We would like to have 2-3 people per sector. Moving Forward: Shayla suggested that we have some sort of outline to benefit coalition members to verbalize what the coalition is about to others when inviting them to meetings. (elevator speeches written out)
Trainings
Presenter:
Discussion
Conclusions	CADCA: Jen reported that they took 4 students who have been involved with the youth coalition. The students had meetings with the Senators and Representative. They also had the opportunity to do a presentation regarding social media. Upcoming Trainings:  Guiding Good Choices facilitators receive a small stipend for being a training, but it is currently full.  SAPST: March 8-11 in Yakima – helps members understand coalition structure.  Youth Forum: Coalition is taking youth to the forum at Great Wolfe Lodge in May.
